

CHICO AREA INTERFAITH COUNCIL

Membership 2018-2019 (fiscal year July 1-June30)

As stated in our Bylaws, CAIC is an unincorporated voluntary association comprised of faith-based organizations and other stakeholders in the community. Everyone is welcome at our meetings. The Bylaws describe three categories of membership:

Full Members, open to faith-based organizations

Faith-based groups desiring to become members shall notify the CAIC President in writing. Full members are expected to appoint representatives to attend CAIC meetings and to pay annual dues (minimum $50-$100). Representatives of full members have both voice and vote at CAIC meetings.

Associate Members, open to other community organizations

Community organizations desiring to become members shall notify the CAIC President in writing. Associate members are expected to appoint representatives to attend CAIC meetings and to pay annual dues (minimum $25-$50). Representatives of associate members have a voice but no vote at CAIC meetings.

Individual Members, open to those who share a likeminded purpose with CAIC

Individuals desiring to become members shall notify the CAIC President in writing. Individual members are expected to attend CAIC meetings and to pay annual dues (minimum $10-$20). Individual members have a voice but no vote at CAIC meetings.

Please use this form to request or renew membership in Chico Area Interfaith Council. Contact the CAIC Executive Committee (President, Vice President, Secretary, or Treasurer) with any questions.
